PROSPECTUS

THE Seventh Volume and the Seventh Year of the publication of THE CRISIS is about to begin, and, in accordance with custom, we issue our Annual Prospectus. We need not recapitulate its history during the stormy years of its existence, nor remind those who have read it, of its services in behalf of the great principles of the Democra-cy, and what its conductors conceived, and what time has shown, to be the best interests of the country. Its merits have been as knowledged from the time it was started by that veteran and distinguished journalist, Gov Medary, and its present conductors simply claim for it the credit of an earnest and undeviating adherence to the plan and principles of its founder. In all the political vicissitudes of the past six years—the failure of some, the apoetacy of others, and the unguarded weakness of many, exponents of Democracy, Tax Cassa has never denia-propose to rigidly adhere. The reliable market reports and the great amount of statistical, agricultural, financial, and political information we publish, is of im-

paper as The Chisis, it must have a large list of subscribers; and to secure that we rely upon our friends and those who have taken the paper. We cannot compete with rely upon our friends and those who have taken the paper. We cannot compete with the cheap, shoddy publications of the East by offering bogus premiums or employing traveling agents; but we carnestly solicit the aid of our readers in extending our circulation by their personal efforts. It will require but little exertion from each, but the aggregate will enable us to furnish them with a paper fully equal in size, superior in the load and will give faithful market reports from the loading Commercial Centers of the country. On the 18th of December, The Weekly Statesman will be so enlarged as to give two and a half additional columns of reading matter weekly. The following are the culation by their personal efforts.
